

Waverley School Governors

Martin Nield
Chair Governor

Martin has lived in Enfield since 1996. He works in Information technology and has a master's degree in IT Security. His connection with Waverley began when his daughter, Aida, joined the school aged 3. She progressed through the school and finally left in 2015 aged 19. Before she left, Martin decided to give something back to the school which had done so much for his daughter and joined as parent governor. As a governor he took advantage of the Governor Accreditation Program training provided by Enfield council, and after his daughter left, decided to stay on as a Co-Op governor.

Lucille Balcombe
Vice Chair of Governors

Lucille is a registered Mental Health Nurse who has specialised in Child and Adolescent Mental Health for 25 years; in her current role she is part of a multidisciplinary team and is accountable for the assessment and direct treatment of care to children and young people and their families as well as holding a senior management and safeguarding role. Lucille has an MSc (Inter professional Practice Child and Adolescent Mental Health) and has published a paper.

She previously worked at Enfield College as a Core Manager (Centre of Vocation Excellence in Early Years) for 9 years. She sits on the Staffing and Curriculum Committee at Waverley. She is a qualified ASA swimming coach and uses these skills to support teachers and pupils.

Marcia Andrew
Parent Governor

Maria Andrew's son started Waverley at the age of 3 years old and is now in the Secondary 4 department 9 years on. Marcia is a family lawyer by profession, but she has not practised since her son had meningitis resulting in his disability. Marcia was an active member of the WASP committee and supported the charity in raising funds and doing presentations to various groups i.e. Sainsbury's. Marcia has supported many families in the school through difficult times. Marcia supports the ethos and the vision of the school and wants to make a valuable contribution in the decision-making process.

Simone Barnett
Parent Governor

Simone's daughter has attended Waverley for 9 years. Simone was a primary teacher for 12 years, previously having worked with learning disabled and vulnerable adults. Simone was the chairperson of Wasp, Waverley's charity for 7 years as Trustee. Through 'Our Voice', a parent led organisation for parents of children with disabilities. Simone volunteers by leading Disability Awareness sessions in Enfield primary schools. Simone became a governor as education is close to her heart and she wishes to be a part of Waverley's ongoing journey. Her knowledge of working in other schools helps her gain a deeper understanding of how Waverley as a special school operates.

Nick Dines
LA Governor

Nick is a former Councillor in the London Borough of Enfield and has lived here for 20 years. Nick runs his own business and would like to ensure that his knowledge of local government and working with the private sector can be used to help Waverley with respect to working with the Council, Education Authorities, and fundraising.
